ORIGINAL CONTRACT PURPOSE

The purpose of the contract is to perform services for the Commission's Indicator Project focusing on the development of data gathering and evaluation as described in the Request for Proposals Exhibit B, Columbia River Gorge Commission Request for Qualifications, March 21, 2008.

AMENDMENT PURPOSE:

SCOPE OF WORK is revised to authorize additional work items that were identified in the current phase of the project. It has been determined that these areas must be addressed to accomplish the project goals.

The required services include: 1) assist in the design and composition of the Gorge Commission's first Vital Signs progress report; 2) continue to work with the Vital Signs' leadership team to refine the key performance measures, data and targets that will be submitted to the Oregon Legislature; 3) assist staff in designing surveys and other data collection instruments in order to obtain data for Vital Signs Indicators; and 4) assist staff in creation of work plans for Vital Signs Indicators that will be developed in the next phase of the project.

This amendment would allow two additional hydraulic project types to be reviewed this year in conjunction with a complete assessment of the Hydraulic Project Approval program for the purposes of developing the Habitat Conservation Plan.. Because of lower than expected project costs this year on another project, additional funds are now available to complete additional work on this project. These federal funds must be spent by December 31, 2008.
