As L&I is well underway with implementation efforts of worker's compensation reform under SSB5801, and administrative simplification under 2SSB5346. As such, some related questions continue to arise where L&I needs the advice and assistance of Thomas & Associates Consulting, LLC, to navigate and trouble shoot specific issues.

This Contractor has provided similar assistance to the OIC related to administrative simplification of 2SSB5346, and related, to L&I last fiscal year under K2217. Continued assistance from this Contractor will ensure L&I, and eventually other healthcare payers, successfully implement the state's centralized credentialing database for medical providers under 2SSB5346. At this time, there are specific issues related to implementation of data imports, credentialing and application review in support of the new provider network as it relates to workers' compensation reform under SSB 5801.

2SSB5346 establishes a state program to streamline health care administrative activities and subsequently OIC designated OneHealthPort as the lead organization. L&I's implementation requires continued work with OneHealthPort (OHP) to conform operations with a uniform electronic process for collecting and transmitting necessary provider-supplied data to support credentialing, admitting privileges, and other related processes. The uniform electronic process is known by the name ProviderSource.

This amendment renews the existing contract in a more limited scope for an additional fiscal year in order to continue support for statewide communications, resource mapping, and development of specifically packaged and branded materials for our state's transition to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English language arts and mathematics. The initial contract provided more support to OSPI for project management as well as communications support. The renewal continues by honing in on key areas of communications, resource mapping, and standards transition materials as identified by the state CCSS steering committee and communications advisory by partnering with OSPI to carry out specific activities within each of those broad areas in a way that can be sustained beyond the close of the contract.

Given the limited staff resources at OSPI for identifying, creating, and disseminating Washington-specific branded materials, the renewal contract with CSTP provides foundational expertise and capacity to step in side-by-side OSPI's CCSS implementation team and communications staff in providing support to present a coherent and clear set of transitional materials and toolkits for school districts and partners transitioning to the CCSS. Since the CCSS are expected to be fully integrated into classrooms by the 2013-14 year with full assessment of them in 2014-15, school districts will begin to fully transition their K-12 systems to these two new sets of standards starting with the 2012-13 year. The support this contract provides to the limited OSPI staff capacity on the front end of this work is critical for connecting and leveraging statewide resources to support local school district, building, and classroom transitions.

Support of the Smarter Balanced assessment project calls for translation of assessments to aid students where English is a second learned language (ELLs). To set the foundation for appropriate designs and approaches to conducting the translations, Smarter Balanced needs a translation framework that can be included in the eventual procurement activity for translation services.

The framework will include:

- A set of theoretical and conceptual foundations for mathematics assessment translation.
- A set of criteria that should be considered in defining ELL populations and populations users of SEE/ASL and in deciding the appropriateness of assessing these populations in English or in the translated language.
- A model for test translation and test translation review.
- A discussion of issues critical to the successful completion of the Smarter Balanced assessment translation endeavor.

This contract is intended to fulfill the requirements of the Healthy Youth Act (RCW 28A.300.475) passed by the 2007 State Legislature. OSPI and the Department of Health (DOH) are required to review sexuality education materials/curriculum for use in K-12 schools based on the 2005 Guidelines for Sexual Health and Disease Prevention. The end product is a report that serves as a resource for schools, teachers, and other organizations and community groups.

OSPI and DOH conducted two joint curriculum review processes in 2011 on twenty-eight (28) products, utilizing a newly created review tool, the Washington State Sexual Health Curriculum Analysis Tool (WA SHECAT). The focus of this contract work is to address the need for increased capacity and sustainability at the local level by providing Professional Development (PD) events on how to utilize the new WA SHECAT, create a webinar on the training for future use, and to conduct an Instructional Materials Review (IMR) on supplemental materials.

Contractor shall be responsible for facilitating development of general and grade-specific Achievement Level Descriptors (ALDs) in English language arts (ELA) and mathematics in Grades 3-8 and 11 for the CONSORTIUM's summative assessments. These ALDs are considered to be an "initial" product; development of "final" ALDs will occur during standard setting under the guidance of the standard setting contractor.

Contractor will design, implement and document activities that lead to high-quality initial ALDs and produce a report that documents the processes used and products developed to support the validity of the initial ALDs. The initial ALDs will serve as the foundation for the final ALDs, which will be developed during standard setting.

will support the creation, vetting, and culminating agreement across all the governing states of the ALDs for the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium. These are the passages that will describe what students at each grade, in each content area, know and can do to be considered meeting the associated performance level on the assessment. The four (4) levels will be similar, but likely with different nomenclature, to our current state testing Performance Level Descriptors (PLDs) - Advanced, Proficient, Basic and Below Basic.
