The original contract extension amount of $37,000 (filed by the HECB and approved as Filing No. 39705-01) has proven to be insufficient for all the additional advertising projects GET has required to meet its enrollment goals since July 1, 2011. In the spring of 2012, additional advertising was purchased to boost enrollment and all required graphic design. In this new enrollment year, exceptional adjustments have been required to accommodate color changes and new photography which were selected as the year's campaign. In addition, all external materials have needed to be altered to reflect the change from the Higher Education Coordinating Board (HECB) to the Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC). This amendment will cover upcoming materials anticipated for the remainder of the contract year such as: additional print ads for the end-of-enrollment, an annual report, online graphics for Facebook and other ads, revisions to Web tiles for end-of-enrollment exposure on broadcast sites, plus other projects which may be deemed necessary to meet GET's enrollment goals.

With the initial phases of the contract work completed or nearing completion, the Consortium recognized an opportunity to achieve its design aims with less intrusion on the membership via the use of the schedule small-scale trials. The lessen intrusion is a result of needing to tryout fewer items and involving fewer students in the process, all of which contributes to less resource demand and the opportunity to reduce costs within the contract

This re-evaluation opportunity also provided the Consortium with the chance to reassess for other services not originally recognized, which include:
- help desk support for the a public item release experience posted to the Consortium website.
- Modifications to the specifications of the mathematics performance tasks which provide the foundation on how to write effective items.
- Establishing a budget to act on recognized enhancements the program may need as a result of the information from the small-scale trials.
