This amendment fulfills a critical agency function of the Washington State Investment Board.

The primary purpose of the amendment is to revise the fee schedule to allow for an account size (assets under investment management) with the Contractor of any size. Previously the account size had been limited to $300 million.

WSIB has been experiencing favorable investment returns from emerging market investments which is the focus of this contract. This contractor has been delivering consistently strong returns. The WSIB is interested in investment of more assets through this manager.

The amendment was issued to extend the period of performance and to modify portions of the Exhibit B "Agreed Upon Procedures". The extension to the period of performance was necessary due to a misunderstanding on the Contractor's part. They did not understand the final report was due within the period of performance. The Contractor was under the impression only the field work must be completed by performance deadline. The Agreed Upon Procedures needed modified to document the final complexities found and decisions made by all parties involved.

The purpose of the amendment is to revise the hourly rate for the services of an expert healthcare specialist in Occupational Medicine and Physiatry. The per hour rate for this contractor was mis communicated as $183 and should have been $283 per hour. The mistake was not noticed until the first billing occurred. The department is increasing the hourly rate to $283 to correct the mistake, and to be more in line with hourly rates of other healthcare specialists in this field.

Health care specialists advise the department about quality assurance and patient care. The Contractor may also provide outreach and education to assist providers in making appropriate choices for their patients, and on-site staffing with Claim Managers and Occupational Nurse Consultants.

The department considers the services of the expert health care specialists to be critically necessary work of the agency due to the impact on the immediate health, safety and welfare of Washington state citizens, specifically the state's injured and ill worker population.

L&I contract K2339 was established to create safety training videos for the Div of Occupational Safety & Health (DOSH) program. Washington state has certain unique safety and health hazards and/or DOSH safety and health requirements for which Washington state employees will benefit from the training videos. Commercially available videos are usually based on federal OSHA requirements or do not cover safety and health hazards unique to workplaces within the state of Washington. Training videos are used by employers to train staff in proper safety procedures. L&I must create videos with pertinent and current information that will be beneficial to workers in the state of Washington.

The purpose of Amendment No. 1 to L&I contract K2339 is to add additional compensation to cover the costs for producing the video "Emergency Eye & Body Wash". Because the original contract manager retired, there was some mis-communication between DOSH staff assigned to manage the contract and the Contractor which resulted in production costs exceeding the original contract amount. An amendment is needed to pay the final invoice for production of this video.

Due to the types of work the ARB is likely to become involved in, it has become apparent that we need technical services that relinquish Measured Progress from certain engagement opportunities mitigating concerns of bias in future solicitations, and allowing Smarter Balanced an argument to claim that their system architecture contractor has not been privy to information above and beyond that which other potential bidders would have, while allowing Measured Progress the opportunity to bid on other project work.

To ensure that the Early Support for Infants and Toddlers (ESIT) a program of the Department of Early Learning (DEL) meets its U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) (federal) grant requirements, as required by Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Part C, Public Law 108-446 and federal regulations 34 CFR 303.

By applying for and receiving these federal funds, each state is mandated to ensure a comprehensive system of personnel development (CSPD), per 34 CFR §303.118. The system is to include parent training, ensure service providers are qualified, and Part C early intervention services are coordinated and provided using evidence-based practices. 34 CFR §§303.28, .31, .32, and .34.

This contract will bring to Washington State Robin McWilliam, Ph.D., to provide a full day session titled: It's a Family Affair, Support Families to Improve Child Outcomes at the annual Infant and Early Childhood Conference (IECC). ESIT supports the IECC as its primary statewide training event for early intervention service providers and parents.

The IECC presentation will assist ESIT in meeting CSPD requirements by providing in-service training from a nationally recognized content expert.
